

Deborah Young's TRANSFORMATIONAL IMAGERY THERAPY

ACTIVATE AND TRANSFORM YOUR DESIRES WITH JOY AND SIMPLICITY

Do you need to live your life with more fulfillment, more magic, more zest and aliveness? Are you making the most out of each day or are you spending precious time worrying or stressing. There is a way to free yourself of burdens, guilt, blocks and unfulfilled desires and really enjoy being you.

Transformational Imagery Therapy is designed to take any issue that is restricting your joy and transform it so that your focus is turned towards the solution. We create and manifest our experiences in life by where we put our attention and focus. What do you think about and feel most of the time? Is it on what is not working or the joy of being here?

In Transformational Imagery Therapy you will be relaxed into a beautiful, peaceful guided visualization by Deborah Young. She will use her outstanding psychic ability and experience to determine the precise and most effective healing imagery to best further your development. As a master of rich guided meditation, Deborah will lead you through the most transforming experience to assist you in becoming empowered, adding energy to your desires.

Each session consists of a thirty minute taped imagery session with time before and after to discuss the issue and how to integrate the new attitudes to assist your transformation. It is recommended, but not required, that the tape be used daily and that sessions be repeated bi-monthly or monthly to allow for advanced imagery to be integrated as you progress towards your desires.

"Deborah's imagery therapy will allow you to open doorways into new worlds and remove obstacles that were once in your path. I wanted to unlock doors in relationships and immediately I noticed that women treated me differently. I became a magnet and am now dating a fantastic lady. After the session, I knew I changed - my vibrations changed, and the Universe responded as well, sending me that which I was seeking." Omar Rosales.

"Deborah's unique Transformational Imagery Therapy has been a tremendous help to me after just two sessions. Having gone to the sessions for help with my business I am already seeing positive results. The key for me has been not only visualizing new customers and larger sales coming to me, but being able to feel what it would be like to have that happen. As a result I am attracting more and more people who are open to and interested in trying the unique energy medicine solutions that I offer." Mark Ralston.

"This therapy is amazing! With Deborah's expertise and caring, gentle manner she customizes a personal meditation for your individual needs to release unconscious blocks. Each session builds upon the previous to help you on your path to self-fulfillment. My personal experience dealt with years of self-sabotage that I can now identify and shift my focus from negative to positive and enjoy my life to its fullest ~ Thank you Deborah." Theresa Jost.
